

Robbery in East Portland.

The Burke House, in East Portland, was robbed on last Friday night, by some unknown party. The robbers have not yet been discovered. We give the statement of Mr. Burke, the proprietor of the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Burke are quite aged people, and it is only lately that they have taken charge of the house. They sleep in a room adjoining the kitchen, the door of which is generally left open, in order that the cooks might be called, if it was found that the fires were not lighted by a certain time in the morning. Miss Perbis, the chambermaid, occupied the same chamber with Mr. and Mrs. Burke. The room contained a trunk, to which there were two keys, one being kept by Mrs. Burke, in her dress pocket, and the other one left in the trunk. Some time during the night, it seems, the thief must have entered, and, from the mode of his procedure, he must have been well acquainted with the premises, as well as the habits of the family. He went to the dress, and took out the key, then extracted $412, which was at the bottom of the trunk. Of this amount, $12 belonged to Miss Purbis, the chambermaid, and was placed in an opposite corner to that of the larger sum. The trunk contained besides, a gold watch and two gold chains, the watch and one gold chain belonging to Mr. Bryan, a boarder in the house, and the other chain to Miss Purbis, eight silver tea spoons, and six silver table-spoons. These were left untouched, the object of the burglar being apparently to select nothing by which he would be discovered. No one heard him while he was in the room, and it was only the next morning that the robbery was discovered. A boarder, early in the morning wanted change for a twenty dollar piece. Mrs. B. searched her pocket for the key, but could not find it there. Thinking it had been lost among the beds, she shook out every one of them, and after an unavailing search, she looked at the trunk, and found it locked, but the straps were inside. This excited her suspicion, so she sent the young man for a chisel to have the hinges taken off. On the trunk being opened, and the money discovered to be missing, an alarm was given, but up to this time the police have been unable to find any trace of the thief. The loss falls heavily on this aged couple, as all their little store was taken, and they were left penniless, one twenty-five cent piece being all that was left to them the next morning.

STRANGE SUICIDE.

A Man Hangs Himself, because his Wife Refuses to Cook Mutton for Supper.

[From the Ottawa Evening Star.]

Joseph Brosseau, a French Canadian, aged 55, came home on Saturday night, about half past 9 o'clock, bringing with him a leg of mutton, a portion of which he asked his wife to cook for his supper. She refused, saying the fire was out, but added that tea and bread and butter was at his disposal. This reception appeared to affect him badly, and he muttered words which were soon to be verified, in a terribly tragic manner. "I'll eat no more of your food," said he, as he prepared for bed. He said his prayers and laid down, his wife shortly afterwards joining him. Mrs. Brosseau states that she awoke about 4 o'clock in the morning, and was started at finding herself alone in the room. She went to the kitchen, which leads off from the bedroom, and found the door obstructed. Becoming alarmed, she searched the bed room and passages, but seeing no signs of her husband, returned to the kitchen door, and forcing it with all her might, managed to squeeze herself in. Imagine the poor woman's terror at finding that the obstruction was nothing more nor less than the dead body of her husband, which hung by the neck to a small hook close to the door. She immediately raised an alarm, when the neighbors came rushing in, and the body was cut down, but life was extinct.

The trial of Margaret Waters, the infamous woman who made it her business to take infants to nurse, for a consideration, and then to get rid of them by starving them to death or killed them by giving them drugs, was concluded at the Central Criminal Court, London, on the 23d of September. The trial occupied three days. She was indicted for the murder of an infant three weeks old, found guilty, and sentenced to be hung. Sarah Ellis, the sister of the convict, then pleaded guilty to a misdemeanor for conspiring to obtain money under false pretences, in connection with the children.

All the leading hotels and restaurants in New York have advanced the price of champagne, owing to the scarcity of that luxury in that market, as a result of the European war. The domestic manufacturers, of which there are several on Long Island, no doubt will come to the rescue.

The Railroad Robbers Caught.

RENO, Nov. 10.—Yesterday, Chapman, one of the men who broke open the express box and robbed it of $41,600, near Verdi, on the Central Pacific Railroad, came down here on the train from the west, in the same car with the man who was searching for him, without the man suspecting Chapman's presence. He deliberately went into a saloon in the upper part of the city, pulled off his coat, and sat down by the fire. About twenty minutes afterward, officer Edwards, with two of the robbers he had in charge, stepped into the saloon. One of the robbers said, "Why, Chapman, what brought you here?" Edwards put his hand on his shoulder and said, "I want you." A considerable portion of the money was recovered, and there is no doubt now that all the robbers have been arrested.

TRUCKEE, Nov. 11th.—Parsons, Squeers, and another of the gang who robbed the express car near Verdi, will be taken to Washoe City, Nevada, by Capt. J. J. Green and J. E. Dooly, on a requisition from the Governor of Nevada. All parties engaged in the robbery are now in custody, and nearly all the treasure recovered, without firing a shot. The officers recovered yesterday afternoon $11,700, and today $750 more, about one mile from the robbers' general rendezvous, where a portion of them resided for eight days previous to the robbery. The principal actors in the affair were Parsons, Davis, Roberts, Carkil, Chapman and Squeers, the latter of whom gained some notoriety at the time of the Baldy Green stage robbery in Six Mile Canyon, on the overland route.

SALT LAKE, Nov. 10.—The party from here on the track of the Central Pacific Railroad robbers, are about 65 miles south-west of Salt Lake. These men had passed some new half dollars of the San Francisco Mint of 1870, and had rolls of greenbacks, which led to suspicion. Later information states that two of the mail robbers were caught last night by Mormon authorities, twenty-five miles west of this city. They are on the track of the others. In the saddlebags captured with the robbers was found $126 in greenbacks, $329 gold coin, some silver, and a package of gold dust weighing 28 ounces, and another package weighing 37 ounces. One of the robbers attempted to escape, but was captured.—Nov. 11.—The same party of Mormons who captured two men supposed to have been connected with the Central Pacific Railroad robbery, after bringing the prisoners into the city, started out again after the others, and brought two more in to day. While they were being pursued, they threw away their saddlebags, which have since been found. They contained a large amount of greenbacks and Boise gold dust, and some jewelry, which is sufficient evidence to convict them; also of the Boise, Idaho, stage robbery, which occurred on the 6th of last August.—Bulletin.

Two families, the occupants of frame houses, narrowly escaped destruction by a land slide a few days since, at Mount St. Vincent, on the southern bank of the Postevkill, N. Y. 150 feet of earth was carried into the creek. The people of Berlin, it is stated, are already beginning to count up the cost of the war, which is estimated at $986,000,000, distributed as follows: expenses of fitting out the armies, $250,000,000; indirect losses, $450,000,000; compensation for the reconquered territory of Alsace and Lorraine, $40,000.

A steamboat genius has invented a plan for assisting boats over bad bars. The plan of this genius consists in utilizing the balloon. A large number of these are to be carried on all boats, with necessary conveniences for inflating them. When a boat approaches shallow water, she is to be hoisted by the balloons sufficiently to enable her to pass over.

The National Eclectic Medical Association, in its meetings at Chicago, adopted a resolution declaring female physicians entitled to all the rights and immunities of the profession, and to equal recognition as practitioners. This admits them to full membership in the National, State and Local Medical Societies, and authorizes them to take part in medical consultations.

A Paris paper gives the following: The Surgeon General is reviewing the Garde Mobile. A young guard steps forward. "And on what ground do you claim an exemption?" asked the surgeon. "I have the palpitation of the heart," responded the guard. "So much the better," said the surgeon, as he turned towards the next. "If your heart palpitates for your country."

The very latest thing in the advertising line, is that of a lady who, through the newspapers, seeks for employment as an "ornamental guest." She will assist at dinner or evening parties, by her grace, and wit, and beauty, contributing to the entertainment of guests, and she will do everything in the highest style of the art, only she demands that a handsome compensation be made to her for her services.
